

The Fascinating Newness of These Fall Goods!

The Fitts Store, endeavoring each succeeding season to outdo the preceding season in variety of style and quality, now has on its counters a line of beautiful dress fabrics that should court your admiration---and you'll bestow it ungrudgingly when you see them. It's a season when no single weave or color is best. Your favorite color and fabric is just as good as is to be had as far as the style is concerned. Rough fabrics and smooth plaids and stripes with the beautifully subdued tones of green, brown, blue and red. The coming season promises a wonderful variety of dress and the most interesting season on dress fabrics in years.

LET US SHOW YOU WHAT'S WHAT IN DRESS GOODS.

Funeral of the Late William Z. Pratt
Was Held Yesterday.

The funeral of William Z. Pratt was held yesterday at the house, the Rev. Cora M. Eves officiating. The bearers were J. K. Pirie, A. E. House, Van McAllister, William Waterson, George Savory and Hiram Drury. The Masons attended in a body and conducted the services at the cemetery. The many beautiful flowers showed something of the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Drury returned Saturday from St. Albans, where they have been for several days visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Evans.

William Waterson arrived the last of the week from Massachusetts and is with his sister, Mrs. W. Z. Pratt.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will hold a social and business meeting at the church vestry on Tuesday. Dinner will be served.

GUARD AGAINST FIRES.

Hunters Warned on Opening Partridge
Season Tomorrow.

Stowe, Aug. 31.—The open season for partridge opens September 1. Hunters are warned that they should take great precautions against setting forest fires. The continued drouth has made the danger from matches, powder and campfires especially grave this season and unusual care should be exercised.
